Bruce,

Best of luck in the future. You have been a great friend this year. We've had really good times together. Remember our trip to Bishop to go to the show, and all the crazy partying (you, me, Jeffery and Shannon). Don't forget my big LA (you guys were so mean to me) also when you guys woody slammed me in Basketball "Don't let it hit the garage"! (

Best of luck + Love & Friendship

Louise Ferrari

P/S, I'll still get you back from that drawing off Cliff and Sid + it will be worse than the other one you drew me.

You'll be Sorry.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
Robert (Robbie) Vance

It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all-
A song for those who answer not,
However we may call;
They throng the silence of the breast,
We see them as of yore-
The kind, the brave, the sweet who walk with us no more.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Kerry Lynn Gordon

'Tis hard to take the burden up,
When these have laid it down
They brightened all the joy of life,
They softened every frown;
But, oh 'tis good to think of them
When we are troubled sore!
Thanks be to God that such have been
Although they are no more.

SENIOR PROPHECY

It is early April in the year 2067, and Bruce Miners and myself (Eric Barton) are preparing to celebrate our 100th birthdays, in of all places the Sunnyvale Convalescent Home just outside of Vegas. We were sitting in the hot tub after our daily workout of walking to the bathroom. One of the nurses asked what life was like in the 20th century. The furthest back we could remember was our high school reunion, so we told them about that.

It all started back on Dec. 26, 1999 when I (Bruce Miners) was going up to Mammoth for a skiing trip. I was cruising at about 125 MPH in my red turbo Lotus. When, just outside of Big Pine, I saw flashing lights in my mirror. As I pulled over I couldn't help but notice the blue and white Porsche 944 pulling in behind me. The cop took my license, and told me to follow him to the police station. As I sat in his office I noticed a picture of Lisa Escher standing next to her off-road Chevy racing truck, with her pit crew chief "Funky" Davis. Just then Lisa and Jeff walked in with the cop that hauled me in. It was the illustrious, Sheriff Eric K. Barton of Inyo County. He knew it was me all along because he recognized my license plates "S-M-E-G-8-5." As we rapped about old times we got the idea of having a class reunion, and decided to have it on the last New Year's Eve of the century, in the biggest bar in the country, Gilley's.

Eric placed a teletype call to the LAPD to get the last known addresses of the class of "85." We grabbed the printout and headed for L.A. We all decided to stop in Lancaster and charter a bus. We stopped at the main office of Greyhound Bus Lines to talk to the President, and to our surprise it was none other than Dennie Neff. We decided to eat lunch. During lunch Dennie had told us that Shari Vance had her own interior decorating business a few blocks away. She had been living in Lancaster with her husband, a sargeant with the California Highway Patrol, for the past few years.

Finally back on the road, we didn't get very far when we noticed flashing lights ahead. As we approached we saw an Air Force jet on the side of the road. We got out to see if we could help. As we walked towards the jet we saw that the pilot was Candi Carter. She was telling her story to Antonio Parra who was a reporter for "Crash-N-Burn" stunt magazine. After the plane was hauled away, we again boarded the bus and headed on our way.

Our next stop was at the famous Playboy Mansion. But we didn't stop to see Hugh Hefner, we stopped for Wilfred Miller who is the leading cartoonist in the country, and is living at the Playboy Mansion. By the time we got there it was pretty late so Hef asked us to stay the night. The next day we were given sideline passes to the Raiders - Dolphins game, courtesy of Playboy Magazine. As we approached the gate we noticed a blue Ford truck that read S.W.A.T. on the side. It looked familiar to all of us, but we couldn't remember why. As we walked toward the gate we showed our passes to the guard. As we entered the stadium, a rock came flying towards us and tagged Eric on the head, We turned and saw the guard laughing. Eric rushed him and a scuffle ensued. After getting them apart we discovered that the guard was Don McGhie. We wondered why a S.W.A.T. Commander was working the gate at a football game. He said, "The Jacksons are doing the half-time show, and guess who their promoter is. Look, here she comes now." She had on a red jacket with about 50 zippers all over it. The second she took off her sunglasses we knew who it was, Yvette Mason. She said that she was coming to tell Don that Marshall Colvin, defensive lineman for the Raiders, had just sacked the field goal kicker for Miami, Tom Hyldelund, and might have broken his leg.

A few of us went to watch the game while the others went into the lockerroom to see if Tom was alright. They didn't return until the game was almost over. Tom was with them and wasn't hurt. We also found out that Kellie Coleman was the temporary X-Ray technician for the Raiders, in the absence of the regular Radiologist. The conversation was interrupted by the sudden cheers of the crowd. A Miami receiver had just caught the ball on L.A.'s 3-yard line, with just 2 seconds left and Miami down by 4 points. Miami tried a draw up the middle, which Marshall stopped by sacking the running back on the 7-yard line just as time ran out. We were waiting for Marshall back on the bus when we noticed a poster on the wall. It was a wrestling bill for that night at the Forum. It read "Main Event: Hunter Brothers vs The Samoans. Special Event: Mud Wrestling Championships - Crusher Copeland vs Big Bertha."

Just as Marshall came out of the lockerroom, a call came on Donnie's radio about an accident just a few blocks away. Donnie screeched out of the parking lot in his truck and we followed him in the bus. When we got to the scene of the accident we saw that a yellow Toyota Corolla had run into a school bus. Fortunately, nobody was hurt, and the school bus didn't have any kids on it, just the driver and a kindergarten teacher. It turned out that the driver of the Toyota was the coach of the U.S. Olympic Women's Volleyball Team. We all knew who it had to be. None other than Shannon Roberts. She and the teacher, Rhonda Duckey, were giving statements to the police when we walked up to them. The police asked us to move out of the way of the tow truck that was backing in to take away the Toyota. The tow truck was black with grey pinstriping on the side. On the door was painted a sign that read: "Corie's Body Shop." The driver, dressed in pink satin overalls and knee-high black leather boots, got out of the truck and started to hook up Shannon's car.

As we went on with our conversation, she caught her overalls on her truck and put a big tear down her sleeve. She yelled out, "Bark at the moon!" We all laughed because we knew it had to be Corie Coburn. Eric walked up behind her, pinched her, and said, "Hey Baby." Corie turned around and said "Control yourself, Eric."

After realizing who we all were, we told her about our plans for the reunion. She asked us to follow her back to the shop so she could close down for a while. On the way Donnie dropped his truck off at headquarters.

After much insistance from Marshall, we decided to stop for dinner before we went to the Forum. We were so happy about our success in finding everyone, that we got a little noisy while we were eating. In fact the owner came out. Corie stood up and said "Oh no! Not you!" The owner yelled, "Corie is that you?"
Corie told us that it was Tina Leonard. Everyone thought that Tina was a lawyer but she told us that she got kicked out of Law School for smoking in the bathroom. After finishing our meal, we all piled back on the bus and headed for the Forum. As we arrived at the arena, we saw on the marquee that all the fights had been cancelled. We got off the bus and walked up to the ticket booth. The lady explained that the Samoans had been deported, and Big Bertha flew to Switzerland for a reverse polarity operation. She also told us where we could find the Hunters and Crusher Copeland. We followed her directions to the wrestler's lounge where we found Jenny "Crusher Copeland" arm wrestling Andre the Giant, and Tim and Norman were beating up a coke machine trying to get their change back. We told them our plans to hold the reunion at Gilley's. Tim and Norman were all for it but Jenny had a date with Andre for New Year's Eve. He said that he wouldn't mind as long as she didn't arm wrestle with anyone else while she was away.

We thought we finally had everyone but we noticed that we were two people short. There was no location on Eric's list for Louise Ferrari or Rosie Bacoch. However, we all agreed that there wasn't enough time before New Year's Eve to try and find them. So, we headed for Pasadena, Texas home of the famous bar, Gilley's.

We got to Pasadena at about noon on the 30th. We checked into a Hotel for the remainder of the day, so we could rest up for the day ahead of us. When we got up the next day, we found out that Gilley's was going through a change of ownership.

After breakfast we all went out to Gilley's to find out what was going on. As we pulled into the parking lot, we saw a green and gold Ferrari, with license plates which read, "AUSSIE." We all laughed at the thought of who's car that was. We walked in and saw Rosie Bacoch cleaning out the drunks from the night before. When she finished she informed us that she had been working there for a few months. She also said that the new owner was planning to close down for a while to remodel, so there was a good chance that we would be able to have our reunion there.

While Rosie went to find the owner, we all sat down and started to plan the activities for the next few days. Our discussion was interrupted by a loud screeching voice that yelled out, "MAR-SHALL!" We couldn't believe out eyes. The owner of the green and gold Ferrari outside, and the new proprietor of "Gilley's", soon to be "Trustees", was Louise Ferrari. She always said she would own a pub someday. Those next few days will live in our hearts forever.

A few weeks later, after everyone had again gone their separate ways, Eric and Bruce decided to go into business together and open their own rest home.

To the Seniors of 1985, Good Luck in whatever goals you may persue in your future.

GIRL'S STATE

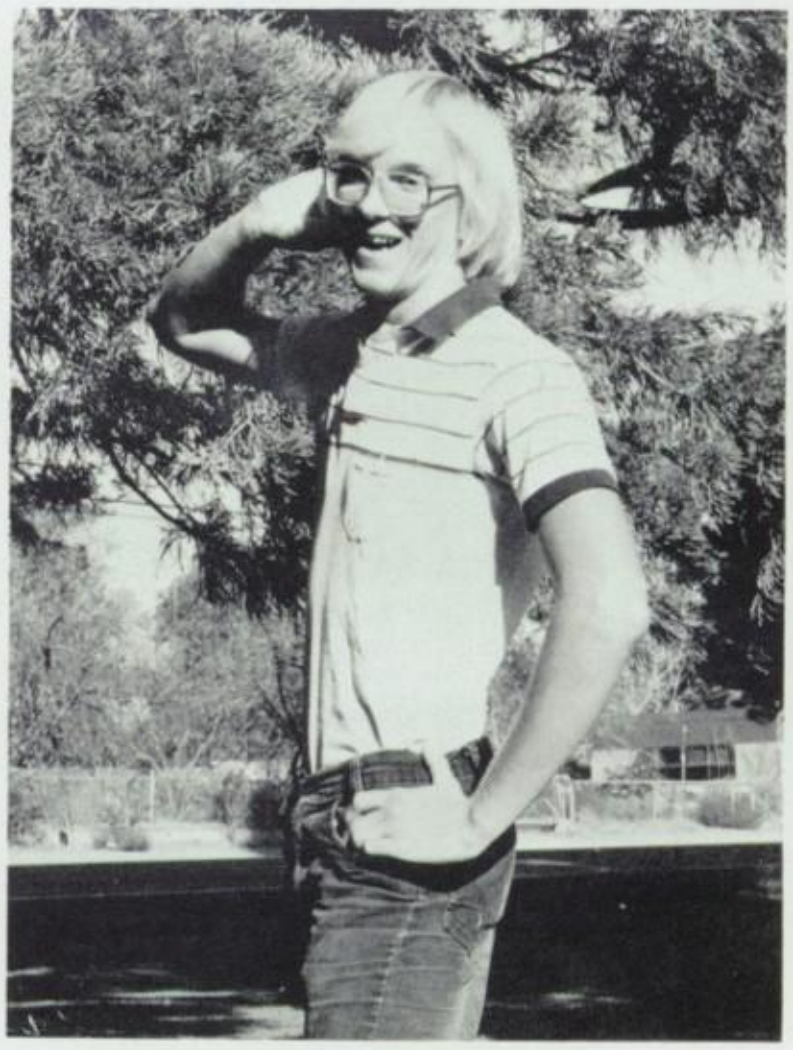
Girl's state was a good experience for me. While I was there I learned how governement functions at city, county and state levels. I also learned how to file petitions and run for office. I met many people and I made some friends. Girl's state was a good experience for me and one that I will always remember.

representative, Bruce Miners

During the week at Boy's State, I learned about three levels of government; city, county, and state. I did not run for public office because I was on the election committee. My duties were to hand our petitions, oversee elections, and to count the ballots.

I was surprised at how well it was organized seeing as how there were over 900 people.

BOY'S STATE



CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

Vice President/Social Chairman James Lamia, Eric Tillemans, Jeff Bacoch, Bruce Miners, Jeff Crechriou, Kellie Coleman, President Jody Horton, Treasurer Debi McGhie, Reva Calloway, Secretary. Tonya Baker, Alejandra Marquez

The California Scholarship Federation was started in 1921 for the purpose of fostering high standards of scholarship, service, and citizenship on the part of students of the senior high schools of California.

Our local chapter of the California Scholarship Federation serves to promote these qualities in our excelling students and improve the ability of the student body in general through such programs as peer tutoring.

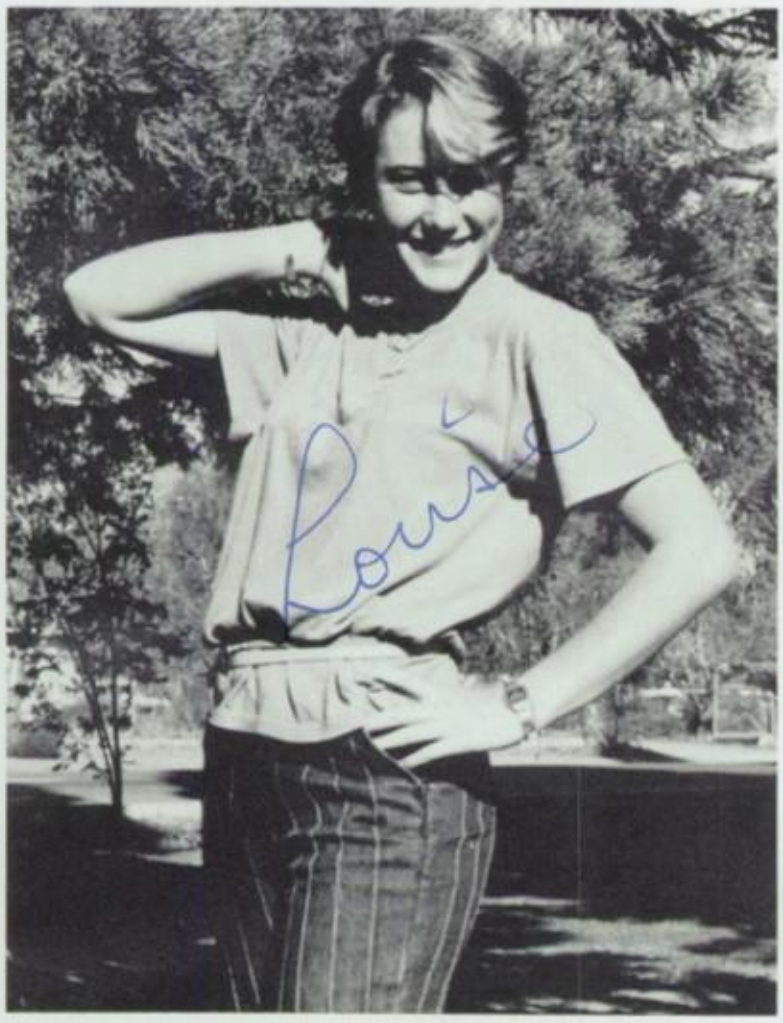
AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE



Louise Ferrari

Big Pine reminds me, as a matter of fact, of my own town Hammeleu, so I am used to a little town like Big Pine. What I really like about California and Big Pine is the climate. There is snow in the mountains and sunshine in the town and in the summer it is really hot. The people in Big Pine are also very friendly and I think that I was very luck with the family I live; with are a fitting together perfectly. Big Pine school is a very nice place which I enjoy very much going to. The teachers are very understanding that I am from another country that doesn't speak english. The thing I liked very much was playing football, it was an experience to go out on the field and play. So I will end by saying thanks to all the people who helped me and made it possible for me to play this wonderful sport.

Gidday! Being from Australia and an AFS Student, I have come to live in Big Pine, CA. for 12 months at the Robert's residence on Juniper Street. Big Pine is very small, but the people are nice and friendly and I've met a lot of really nice people. My host family and' I have been to Disneyland and Universal Studio which we enjoyed immensely.

I went to a boarding school in Sydney, Australia at which there were 800 students enrolled and it was a big difference coming to a school with 85 people but I found it good because you get to know everyone, which is really neat.

This was my first year of seeing and experiencing earthquakes and especially the snow. The mountains and scenery surrounding Big Pine, is really beautiful "Down Under" is a lot flatter and their aren't any deer or chipmunks so its neat for me to see it all.

So far the experience in has been great and I hope to come back to Big Pine in the near future.

Happy Hubby dreams of a day on the golf course. First he must do a few minor repairs around the house, fix the T.V., get a haircut, and eat lunch. H.H.'s wife waves goodbye to him happily. H.H. has fun at the golf course. So does his friend, Charley. But both have to watch the clock, both are late. H.H. and his wife take the kids out for "quality" time. Next time UNhappy Hubby will try bowling.

Well Mud. I'm going to miss you a lot.
I wish you the best
of luck in all you
do. You certainly deserve
it. Your a super great friend (especially cuz
you don't let other friends drive drunk ha) When you come home + visit
all four of us have to go party. Take care + stay sweet All my love + friendship

Bruce.

Well it looks like this is it, I can't even belive it. Im going to miss you so much. its going to be really hard to leave you. Bruce your my best friend and I really Love you a lot. I really hope that we stay in touch forever. I want you to know that no matter what ever happens I'll always be ~~here~~ opps here for you if you ever need me.

I hope all your dreams come true cause you only diserve the best. The Navy better be good to you or Im gonna kick there butts "K".

We've had some great times and I'll never forget them. I know well have some more in the feture.

Im never going to say good by to to you cause good by means forever and I plan on us keeping in touch and seeing each other in the feture.

Stay sweet and crazy I Love you LOTS.

"85" forever

Love ya

Shannon

Bruce you ol' faggatt,
well it has been
hell of a long year.
not you last one at that. Im not gonna write what a great guy you are or any thing, cause I really don't think you a great guy. you might be a S.O.A.B. or a D.M.F a S.S! But hey. I like you even though you are a D.M.F!!! we have had an alright year when we've gone out. you're gonna be leaving here in a few months (yer D.M.F') But I Wish yer Best of luck anyway. and Im gonna miss ya.
whatever you do, don't get down, cause that's one of the worst things you can do to yourself! And Make sure when yer come Back, that yer don't forget to drop Bye!!!

Taken EASY. (And
DON'T FORGET TO GET SOME BEFORE
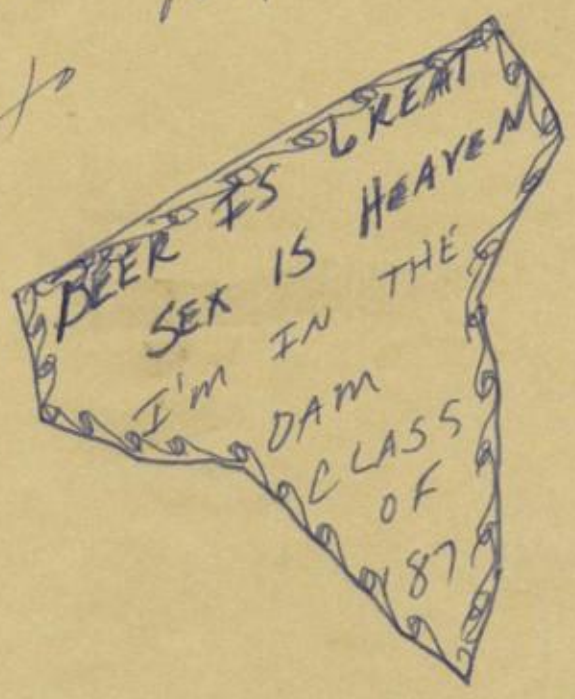
YOU LEAVE!)


A True friend.
